Sabbath

The story is told of how Queen Victoria was out walking one Sunday with her faithful servant John Brown. They saw someone fishing from a boat on the Loch, and she said: "Fancy people doing that on the Sabbath."

"But Ma'am," protested John Brown, "the Lord Jesus was in a boat on the Sabbath."

The Queen sniffed: "Well, two wrongs don't make a right."

Leak

Members of a local church discovered that the roof was leaking. The following Sunday morning the church warden stood up: "First of all, I want to apologise for the big drip in our pulpit this morning."

Inter-faith cricket match: A Cathedral cricket team are playing one from the Chelmsford Hindu Society at Willingale Cricket Club (near Roxwell) this afternoon starting at 2pm. Canon Ivor Moody says, "We are excited about this because it's the first fixture against the Hindu community, to be followed in September by our usual game against the Chelmsford Mosque, and it represents another milestone in inter-faith relations. If you are around on August 11th in the afternoon we would love to see you and would appreciate your support."

in touch: Next Sunday is the copy date for the September edition of the church magazine. Please pass items to Robin Stevens at rmsrobin@icloud.com.

Weekly sheet: Please pass items for next Sunday's weekly sheet to Dave Gauld by Thursday evening at dave.gauld@blueyonder.co.uk.

Worship Together in September: The service on Sunday 1st September at 10.30am, weather permitting, will be held on the grass in the churchyard and followed by a BBQ for all. The theme will be "creation" and there will be a display of the work done at Messy Church in August.
