

Weekly Prayer Guide

From Monday 27th April

Lord, you are the light that the darkness can never conquer. Pour your light into the darkness of this world, so that people can see better ways of solving problems.

Pour your light into the confusion of our national and political difficulties, so that we can see new strategies and possibilities.. Pour your light into us, your quarrelsome children, for we ourselves are part of the darkness.

Tuesday

Prayers in church at 10am.

Lord, we pray for this church. All Saints' is our spiritual home, our spiritual family. May the ties that bind us together grow and our relationship with you and each other deepen.

Pray for Rector Sally. Lord bless her and keep her strong in faith, hope and joy. Bless her that we may be blessed because of her love and leading of us all.

Wednesday

Sovereign Lord, we entrust the future of our nation and our neighbours in mainland Europe into your hands.

You alone know what the future holds, so please, we pray for your mercy and grace at this time of uncertainty. Please grant peace and stability to governments and communities.

Thursday

Lord you are the love that casts out fear.

Pour your love into the hearts of all of us that lose our temper, in our homes, work, or with those we work with.

Pour your love into the hearts of all who have been abandoned or let down and who vow that they will never love again.

Friday

Let us recognise that before God we have much to learn. When we prefer the comfort of the familiar to the challenge of the new, forgive us Lord and open our hearts and minds.

May God, our patient teacher, forgive us our sins and open our eyes to the truth. Strengthen us to do your will and give us the joy of your kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Saturday

Lord of the church, thank you for all the church-based initiatives that express your kingdom values by preaching the gospel, promoting harmony and justice, and demonstrating Christ's love in other ways.. Give us a heart to long for you, grace to discern you, and courage to proclaim you. Through the one who loved before the creation of the world, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Sunday
