

Weekly Prayer Guide

From Monday 18th May

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.” Philippians. 4. 6-7
Dear Lord, thank You for this new week. I surrender my plans, my worries, and my ambitions to You. Please clear my mind of any lingering stress from last week and fill me with Your peace. Help me to be productive, kind, and mindful of Your presence in every task I undertake today. Amen

Tuesday

Prayers in church at 10am.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. You deeply desire that we shouldn't be taken into the clutches of the much greater darkness that opposes Your reign of love at every turn. Rescue those who are playing with the darkness, keep a guard on their hearts, a watch on their door, especially anyone we feel is particularly under pressure right now.....Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Wednesday

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are Yours, now and forever. Thank goodness! The outcome of our struggles isn't in doubt. Following Christ may be hard, but it's not as hard as following nobody, or trying to follow ourselves! Where Christians are struggling today – in countries where religious repression is normal, or even in this country where many congregations are small and confidence is low – raise the eyes of Your people to the coming dawn, for nothing can hold back Your reign. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are Yours, now and forever.

Thursday

God of foreign tongues, You have taken Your message to the corners of the earth. Not just Parthians, Medes and Elamites, but Chinese, Nepalese and Korean. We pray for those who follow Your living Word with the written word, those who translate the Bible and interpret and teach the faith.

Friday

God of the Church, which was born on that happy day, make us powerful in proclamation, as Peter was powerful that first day of Pentecost when 3,000 people were baptized. As the massive fallout of that great day continues, so thousands of people start the Christian journey every day all over the world. Make us a church here at All Saints where people will also find new life and hope. Make us attractive as a church through the love and joy which spill out naturally from our faith and the way we live our lives.

Saturday

God of the silence that followed the storm, we know you to be a God who acts where your people give You space and freedom to do so. We offer you that space now as we wait in silence for You to come to us, to speak to us, to be with us however You want.....
Lord, what we know not, teach us; what we are not, make us; what we dare not, inspire us to do, as we pray.
With wind and fire from heaven.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus told his disciples to wait in Jerusalem until they received power from on high, this is the day we celebrate the HOLY SPIRIT being given.
Please pray for all the services in this church and beyond that God will come in power.
